

Publication date: 30.03.2017

European Commission has recently invited CNRED representatives to present the model of good practice in the coordination, management and implementation of Internal Market Information System \(IMI\) in Romania

As coordinator of the Internal Market Information System (IMI) legislative area for the „Recognition of professional qualifications”, CNRED representatives presented on 28th of March – at the invitation of the European Commission - the model of good practice in the coordination, management and implementation of Internal Market Information System (IMI) in Romania.

Romania was mentioned by the European Commission as a positive example in terms of coordination and management of this area. IMI coordinators were informed of the IMI performance indicators for Romania, statistics showing very good results in handling requests within related modules recognition of professional qualifications, as well as European Professional Card and alert mechanisms.

By Indicator

Romania

Labels: news

imi

Source URL: <https://chatbot.vps.webdock.cloud/en/european-commission-has-recently-invited-cnred-representatives-present-model-good-practice>

Drupal.jQueryUiFilter.globalOptions('accordion');