CNRED participated at the actions to promote Romanian higher education in the Republic of Tunisia

Between 18 and 19 October, in Tunis, several actions to promote Romanian higher education were organized by the National Council of Rectors (CNR), the Ministry of National Education in Romania, the Ministry of Higher Education and Scientific Research in Tunisia and the Embassy of Romania in the Republic of Tunisia.

The National Center for the Recognition and Equivalence of Diplomas (CNRED) was invited to provide information on the procedures for the recognition of Romanian diplomas in this country, in the context in which the common interest is the harmonization of educational systems and their adaptation to the competitive environment and external challenges.

In addition to the meeting with university representatives in Tunisia, the Universities Forum in both countries, CNRED was also present at the "Campus Roumanie" Educational Fair, organized to promote the Romanian higher education offer, but also to provide background information on the social, academic and cultural environment in Romania, advantages offered by Romanian education, as well as the efforts to apply for university studies in our country and the recognition of studies.
