Relocation of refugees in the context of European and national policies on migration and asylum

Today, 27th of November, the representatives of CNRED participated in the meeting dedicated to the relocation of refugees on the territory of Romania, organized in Bucharest by the International Organization for Migration (IOM) - the Romanian Office, together with the Shottener Foundation and with the support of the General Inspectorate for Immigration.

The CNRED intervention reiterated the existence, at national and local level, of mechanisms for recognising studies, which facilitate refugee persons access to studies and the labour market, in the context of the topics discussed on this occasion: resettlement of refugees in the context of European and national policies on migration and asylum; Presentation of the project "Support for relocation of 109 refugees from Turkey and Jordan to Romania - STARRT III" and assistance and support for the integration of refugees.
