

Authentication of education documents to be used abroad

The authentication procedure involves verifying and certifying the authenticity and the legality of an education document and its contents. This procedure is only applicable in relation to those states which require, on the basis of reciprocity, either the Hague Apostille or superlegalization.

We recommend that you contact the competent authorities of the destination country involved in the recognition of education. These institutions contact details may be found on the ENIC-NARIC websites maintained by the network of National Centres for the Recognition and Equivalence of Diplomas.

For the United States of America and Canada, we recommend that you consult the information on the process of recognition of higher education studies through World Education Services \(WES\).

Authentication of documents issued by pre-university institutions

The authentication of diplomas belonging to the pre-university education system is performed by the respective County School Inspectorates / Bucharest School Inspectorate.

The higher education documents subject to authentication are as follows:

1. Study documents issued by the accredited higher education institutions in Romania,
2. The annexes to study documents and / or the university school documents issued by the higher education institutions accredited or authorized to work provisionally in Romania, respectively:
 - a) the diploma supplement;
 - b) the transcript;
 - c) the school situation;
 - d) the analytical program;
 - e) the certificate regarding schooling / graduation;
 - f) the certificate attesting the enrolment;
 - g) the certificate regarding the completion of the studies;
 - h) the certificate of authenticity.

The authentication may be requested by:

1. the legal holder of the document
2. the spouse of the holder of the studies document or a relative up to the second degree with the holder of the studies document,
3. another natural person being empowered by a special power of attorney from a notary public or a solicitor: the original document or a legalized copy shall remain with CNRED
4. a legal person having entered into an agreement with the legal holder, for the purpose of acting in his name and stead to perform the procedures required for the authentication, via representation, upon presenting proof of the delegation of duty
5. a diplomatic mission, through a representative who presents a delegation in this regard, for the own citizens who have completed or completed their studies in Romania

If the power of attorney was issued in another state, will be submitted a certified copy for Romanian, English, French, Spanish and Italian language or certified copy and translation for other languages.

The power of attorney must be endorsed with an apostille or legalized by the competent authorities of the country in whose territory has been issued, except those made in countries that have signed with Romania conventions, treaties or agreements on legal assistance in civil matters, which provide exemption from any legalization, respectively: Albania, Austria, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Bulgaria, Croatia, the Russian Federation, the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia, France, Mongolia, Montenegro, Poland, R. P. China, Moldova, Serbia, Slovakia, Slovenia, Ukraine, Hungary.

CNRED shall accept documents of power of attorney issued by the Embassies or Consular Offices of Romania in various states. Such documents witnessed by the ambassador or the consul shall not require translation, legalisation or the Apostille.
