CNRED continues the tradition of the annual meeting with FLEX Romania fellows

At the invitation of the American Councils for International Education, Romania Branch, CNRED representatives attended the Romanian-American University of Bucharest, on May 7th, 2022, at a meeting with FLEX Romania fellows 2022-2023.

The FLEX experience exchange program is funded by the U.S. Government Department of State and aims to provide high school students in Romania with the opportunity to live within an American family and study in an American high school during the academic year 2022-2023. The FLEX program is implemented in Romania by the American Councils for International Education, in partnership with the Embassy of the United States in Romania and the Ministry of Education.

Also this year, CNRED representatives had the great pleasure to discuss with the Romanian fellows aspects regarding the recognition and equivalence of the studies carried out in the United States through this program.
